SUMMARY

My programming journey began at the age of six with gaming, leading me to become a skilled Software Engineer. A Computer Engineering graduate from Karadeniz Technical University, I have hands-on experience in front-end development, network security, and cybersecurity solutions. At SmartCV-Mobixa, I enhanced an MVC project, developed a React.js-based admin panel for an e-learning platform, and contributed to backend improvements. As a Network and Security Specialist at Fener Teknoloji ve Danışmanlık A.Ş., I specialize in Trend Micro solutions, network security, and cybersecurity practices. Proficient in React, Redux, Angular, C#, .NET, and various web technologies, I have built dynamic e-commerce platforms and other web applications. Passionate about problem-solving and continuous learning, I am eager to take on new challenges in software development and security.
